

1100 Hull St. Richmond VA 23224 • www.srossbrowne.com • ross@srossbrowne.com • 804 564 6852

INTRODUCTION TO WATER SOLUBLE OIL PAINTING

(All skill levels welcome)

In this painting class students will learn the fundamentals of drawing and painting. Furthermore they find their own style of painting as they advance through the class. We will learn how to paint in three dimensions, color theory, facial anatomy and painting from life. More advanced students will learn according to their skill level.

SUPPLY LIST

Good quality brushes (Grey Matters for example)

1 large flat

1 large filbert

1 medium flat

1 medium filbert

1 medium round

1 fine round (#0 - 000)

1 small flat

Water Soluble Oil Paint (Windsor and Newton Artisan or Holbein Duo)

1 small or medium tube each

Titanium white

Paynes gray

Ivory black

Cadmium red

Cadmium yellow medium and light

Pthalo blue

Cerulean blue

Ultramarine

Raw and burnt sienna

Raw and burnt umber

Paper palette, (4)11"x14" or larger canvas boards, (2)16"x20" stretched canvas(gallery wrapped), Medium sized drawing pad (cold press)

Pencils HB - 5B, Kneaded eraser

Standard glass mason jar, apron or smock and several clean rags