If there is an “active” membership, there is no need to renew at this time.

If there are no memberships listed or the membership status is “expired”, you can proceed with the membership process.

4. To purchase a Membership, click the Membership link.

The screenshot shows the Pine Shores Art Association website. At the top, there is a logo of a pine tree and the text "PINES SHORES ART ASSOCIATION" with the tagline "Committed to inspiring the fine artist in you" and "Celebrating over 40 years of fine arts in the community". Below the logo, there is a navigation bar with links: "Search", "Calendar", "Guidelines", "Membership", and "Logout". A large blue arrow points from the "Membership" link to the "Membership" section in the main content area. In the top right corner, there is a user profile box for "Sally A Esposito" with a "Make Payment" button. The main content area displays a welcome message: "Welcome to the Pine Shores Art Association Online Registration Site" and "For registration guidance, click here".

5. Select the type of membership, you wish to purchase.
